

HOME @ LEARNING

Issue 5 – 8th May 2020

Update

Here's our latest edition of Home Learning with some useful links and reminders about what is happening at the moment. As always, these are just suggestions and I know you will do what you can depending on your own home circumstances. We await with the rest of the country any announcement over the weekend with regards to the next steps for schools and once we know this we can plan ahead and let you know.

Important Information.

We have had a few questions about assessments. All statutory assessments including Reception EYFP, Year 1 Phonics, Year 2 SATS, Year 4 Times Tables and Year 6 SATS have been cancelled. All pupils in all year groups have been teacher assessed up to the end of the Spring Term as usual and a Spring progress report will be shared with you in due course. There will be no Summer Term report.

Baby News.

Some parents will be aware but we have not made any formal announcements due to closure. The following staff are expecting and will begin their maternity leave in due course. Miss Ferrand (Assistant Headteacher Y1/2) and Miss Rogers (Year 6 teacher) are expecting in May. Mrs Snowden (Year 2 teacher) and Miss Drew (Year 4) teacher are also expecting later in Summer. I am sure you will join me in wishing them all well.

Book worms

Enfield's Digital Library has free ebooks and e-audio books to borrow. Sign in using an existing Enfield Libraries card or join online for free.

Some media may require you to download apps such as OverDrive, RBdigital and BorrowBox. These are available free from your devices app stores.

To visit the library.

Enfield Libraries are part of the uLibrary consortium. This gives Enfield library card holders access to the Bookworms Book Club which has children's e-audio books to enjoy.

Online Safety

More than ever our children are online for learning and entertainment. The links we share with you are safe but can you be sure that other sites the children might access are also safe? BT has produced a short video to support parents with online safety and we have information on our school website.

VE Day

75 Years

This Friday marks 75 years since Victory In Europe was declared by Prime Minister Winston Churchill. Unfortunately we won't be able to celebrate in school but as reported last week, we have a special VE site so that children and families can celebrate. The iconic speech will be broadcast on the BBC at 2.45pm on Friday.

We would love to see your photos of your celebrations on this special Bank Holiday. Please email them to events@raglanschools.org. We have a Raglan VE message board and it would be lovely to see your messages there.

What can you do when there's no school and you're stuck at home?

25 fun non-screen activities you can do at home from Pobble 365. Pobble 365 is a platform used by teachers as a stimulus for writing tasks but they are also starting parent accounts to help provide extra writing ideas for children to write for pleasure.

Calling All Coders

The Beebot app is a great way to teach basic level entry coding. Using the same keypad as the in school floor robot version, the aim is for pupils to solve various challenges by programming a cartoon bee to move around different levels through sequences of forwards, backwards, left and right 90 degree turns.

Raspberry Pi (KS2) are offering a range of excellent coding projects for children to get stuck into and they are completely free. You don't need any coding experience yourself. The step-by-step instructions mean you can learn alongside your child, or, they can work independently.
